OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification No. Roc. 837-Hc. 306—28-29, dated 3rd September 1929.

Applications are invited for ten places in an Agricultural Colony which it is proposed to establish under the Bhadra Channel about two miles from Bhadravati, Shimoga District. Applicants are expected to have had agricultural training and to be Mysoreans.

To each colonist will be granted 30 acres of wet land and 40 acres of dry land under the following conditions :—

1. The wet land will be granted at an upset price of Rs. 25 an acre. The dry land will be granted free.

2. Each colonist will be required to invest Rs. 1,500 which must be produced at the time of admission to the Colony.

3. Government will lend to each colonist Rs. 8,750 free of interest for four years towards the purchase and development of his land. Of this sum Rs. 6,500 will be available in the first year. The money will be advanced in instalments of not more than Rs. 2,000 each instalment after the first being advanced only on evidence satisfactory to Director of Agriculture that the previous instalments have been properly spent for the development of the property.

3 (a). The wet land must be cleared and brought under cultivation within two years from the time of granting the land.

4. After the fourth year the cost of the land plus the sum advanced will be repaid to Government with interest at 6 per cent per annum in 16 equal annual instalments.

5. The land will not become the property of the colonist until all the sums due to Government have been paid.

6. The land will remain permanently impartible.

7. A colonist or his heirs will not be allowed to dispose of rights in the land until all sums due to Government have been paid, except with the permission of the Director of Agriculture.

8. Any failure to fulfil any of the abovementioned conditions will make the colonist liable to forfeiture of all rights in the property granted to him and of the money invested by him.

9. A grant of Rs. 5,000 has been made by Government for the construction of wells, roads and bridges for the colony.

10. The whole colony will be under the control of the Director of Agriculture and no expenditure will be incurred or advances made except on his express recommendation.

Applications will be received by the undersigned upto the 30th September 1929.

LESLIE C. COLEMAN,
Director of Agriculture.
